

Organization Report

Organization: Catholic Charities of the Diocese of Raleigh

Name: Daniel Altenau

Position: Disaster Services Director

Phone: (919) 821-9767

Email: Daniel.Altenau@raldioc.org

Summary of your organization's response to Hurricane Matthew:

Catholic Charities continues to provide financial assistance to get families into safe & stable housing. Funds are beginning to run low and programming may scale down this summer.

In an effort to continue serving survivors, Catholic Charities is partnering with the United Methodists to have volunteers

What your organization provides: repair/rebuild damaged homes.

Immediately following the storm we distributed food, water, & baby items. In recovery, we transitioned into providing financial assistance to move families into safe & stable housing.

Existing unmet needs/areas your organization has found:

Organization Report

Organization: NC United Methodist Disaster Response

Name: Cliff Harvell

Position: Disaster Superintendent

Phone: 252-341-7008

Email: cliffharvell@nccumc.org

Summary of your organization's response to Hurricane Matthew: NCCUMC DR has finished our work in Bertie Co (Windsor) + Closed our Operation. Our work continues through our Washington, Tarboro, Fayetteville and Lumberton Centers. We are ramping our Home Rebuilding in these areas by adding Construction Managers to increase our capacity.

What your organization provides:

Full Case Mgt for Rebuilding homes + Referrals for other unmet needs. We provide Construction Management, Volunteers + Materials for Rebuilding of damaged homes and for New Construction.

NCCUMC is a partner with NC Housing Finance to provide funds for families that qualify

Existing unmet needs/areas your organization has found:

Continue to have <sup>many</sup> existing and new Clients entering our system needing rebuild needs.

NCCUMC has rebuilt and returned around 50 families to their homes. 2 new home have been started